Q8 To what degree should the property owner be required to preserve a historic building (which statement best describes your opinion):

Answered: 34 Skipped: 26

Answer Choices	Responses
Original is nice, but let them do what they want other than demolish the building (keep it at least 10% original)	8.82% 3
Keep it mostly original but allow for additions and enlargements of primary and secondary structures (keep it at least 50% original)	47.06% 16
Original architecture and materials are preferred, but the look of the architecture is more important than the materials (e.g. craftsman style windows that are double pane and vinyl/aluminum framed are ok on a craftsman home), changes to the outside appearance are very limited, no additions to the primary or accessory structure (keep it at least 90% original)	35.29% 12
Keep original design and use original building materials and colors, absolutely no deviation from original design and construction, additions or unoriginal accessory structures (keep it 100% original)	2.94% 1
